

‘Meet the Writers’ workshops organized by Taichung City Government Cultural Affairs Bureau

Time/Date	Subject	Speaker	Location	Tel. number	Author background
May 11 (Fri), 7-9 pm	True Love: Decoding Sexual Relationships	Jao Meng-hsia	Taiping Library Pinglin branch	(04) 2392-0510	Ph.D., University of Iowa Professor at National Cheng Kung University Institute of Education Ed.S., University of Florida
May 12 (Sat), 9-11 am	Cats Are Talking: A Story of Animals	Li Chin-lun	Wuri Library	(04) 2336-8773	A graduate of the Royal College of Art, illustrator Li Chin-lun has many published works. Her book “The Very Kind Rich Lady And Her 100 Dogs” received the Best Children’s Book the year it was published, and was selected by Amazon.com as one of 2001’s best books for readers aged 2-6. She is also selected as one of the most noticed authors of the year by the China Times. Li’s unique strokes and simple stories always make readers feel moved and happy.

May 18 (Fri), 7-9 pm	Innovation Creates a Happy Life	Hsu Yung-cheng	Tai ping Library Pinglin branch	(04) 2392-0510	Master' s degree from Institute and Department of Life and Death, Nanhua University Today, Hsu is a freelance speaker, writer, National Academy of Civil Service teacher, and business consultant for the Chingliangyin Foundation
May 19 (Sat), 9-11 am	Reading Poetry: Have a Conversation with Life by Reading Poems	Miya	Wuri Library	(04) 2336-8773	Miya, or Chen Hsiu-feng, is a poet who likes to teach children how to read poetry. As a child, she loved painting, which she studied on her own using colored pencils. Her illustrated poetry book "Feel the Breeze in the Forest that Smiles" received a Best Children's Book from the United Daily News.
May 19 (Sat), 1-5:10 pm	Pay a Visit to Spring: The Season of Dreams Environmenta l protection video: Refugees of the Blue Planet	Liu Ssu-tsen	Fengyua n District Library	(04) 2515-6756	Associate professor of the Environmental Education and Management Master's Program, National Taichung University of Education Council member of the Chinese Society for Environmental Education

May 20 (Sun), 1:30-5 pm	Sexual Relationships in Movies and Literature	Liu Sen-yao	Shalu Library	(04) 2663-4606	Liu is currently teaching at Feng Chia University' s Foreign Language Department. He is also a writer and a professional movie critic, and will reviewing “The Portrait of a Lady” directed by Jane Campion.
May 24 (Thu), 6:30-9:30 pm	Social Welfare and Women’s Welfare	Li Kun-ming	Xinshe Library	(04) 2581-7868	Li is currently Deputy Director of the Taichung City Government Social Affairs Bureau. His works include “On the Promotion of Voluntary Service: A Case Study of Taichung City Volunteers” . He received a Model Public Servant award in 2008 and a Golden Idea Award from the Taichung City Government.
May 25 (Fri), 7-9 pm	How to Revive Your Life	Chuang Tsung-cheng	Taiping Library Pinglin branch	(04) 2392-0510	國立中興大學畢業 高績效企管顧問公司總經理 心靈潛能激發首席講師 國內十大名嘴之一 As a graduate of National Chung Hsing University, Chuang is now general manager and a teacher for Moltivation Management Consulting Co., Ltd. and is one of Taiwan’s best-known public speakers.

May 26 (Sat), 9-11 am	Happy Stories	Cheyeh	Wuri Library	(04) 2336-8773	Cheyeh, or Chang Wen-che, is a Taiwanese children's literature writer. His "Zhuangzi's Fairytales" received a Best Children's Book award from the United Daily News in 2005, a 2005 Best Book for Children and Teenagers award from the Taipei City Library, and was recommended as an excellent non-textbook work for children by the Government Information Office.
May 26 (Sat), 1-5:10 pm	Set Love Free: Allow Each Other to Have the Chance to Find True Love	Chiu Chiung-hui	Fengyua n District Library	(04) 2515-6756	Part-time therapist at Changhua University of Education's Community Counseling and Development Center Part-time counselor at Feng Chia University. Part-time therapist at The Garden of Hope Foundation